

CLAIM

The "CARD ONE" claim is the systematical process of the transaction and its application in reference to aviation. The collection of information placed on one card and all its links to reservations, ticketing, security operations, identification, baggage claim, boarding, member profile and credit applications. All related applications and encompassing transactions related to this card are to be protected.